

Sun 11th

No Man is an Island*

An Adventure run by Cullercoats
Bike and Kayak Centre

3.00pm £15.00

A cut-price festival treat! A kayak circumnavigation around St.Mary's Island, Whitley Bay under the careful leadership of Simon Laing. The sea journey takes in the grey seal colony, a whole array of bird life plus the history of the lighthouse and the island.

Meeting point: St Marys Island car park, wearing light outdoor layers and a waterproof jacket. Lifejacket provided. The aim is to stay dry, but bring a full change of clothes and a towel, just in case! Duration 90/100mins. More details on booking. Numbers limited to 16. Booking ahead essential.

Please note:

The trip (normally £30) is offered half price to festival supporters and can only be reserved when booking another festival event.

*nor any woman, come to that!

The Festival Literary Quiz

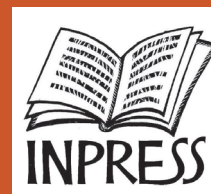

£6.00 team entry (max. 4 per team)

Cullercoats Coffee 5pm

So who did write that blooming book...? Sophie O'Neill, managing editor of Inpress Ltd, the Newcastle-based organisation that represents to the trade IRON and more than 40 independent presses, sets and hosts this special literary quiz that will test your knowledge about writers and books in this region and beyond. Challenging but also we hope, fun. Fortified by the best coffee at the coast. Special literary prizes to be won! Plus nibbles. Booking ahead advisable. Individual entries allowed, but collective teams (maximum four people) fare better!

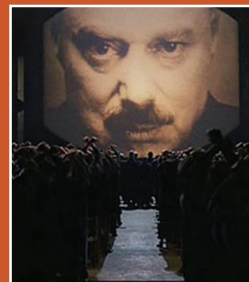

Sophie O'Neill

Three little brain teasers to whet your appetite!

Which writer?

Which book?

Which character?