SING YER BLOODY HEAD OFF!

2pm – 6pm Community Centre £10.00

Ruth Lambert

As our hi-tec world slowly sends itself insane, the distinctly lo-tec activity of communal singing is increasingly being seen as the perfect antidote. It frees the soul and allows the spirits to soar. Try it for yourself - experience this four hour singing workshop led by the experienced Cullercoats singer and performer Ruth Lambert. Ruth will nurture the participants to a high level of choral singing – so much so that for the final 20 minutes they will perform for whichever members of the public wish to attend (free of charge) or for themselves if no-one else turns up. All you need to bring to take part in the workshop is your voice. Tea, coffee and biscuits available. The workshop is limited to 20 people, so book early.
